

TELL THE WHOLE WORLD

Jesus invites us to be apostles of His mercy and encourages us to spread the worship of God's Mercy throughout the world.

Tell the world about My mercy and My love. Do whatever is within your power to spread devotion to My mercy. I will make up for what you lack. Tell aching mankind to snuggle close to My merciful Heart, and I will fill it -with peace. When a soul approaches Me with trust, I fill it with such an abundance of graces that it cannot contain them within itself, but radiates them to other souls. 1074

Write, tell souls about this great mercy of Mine, because the awful day, the day of My justice, is near. 965

Souls who spread the honor of My mercy I shield through their entire lives as a tender mother her infant, and at the hour of death I will not be a Judge for them, but the Merciful Savior. 1075

Tell My priests that hardened sinners will repent on hearing their words when they speak about My unfathomable mercy, about the compassion I have for them in My Heart. To priests who proclaim and extol My mercy, I will give wondrous power; I will anoint their words and touch the hearts of those to whom they will speak. 1521

These promises speak about the importance of spreading the worship of Mercy, since Jesus promises maternal protection in life and in the moment of death to all who undertake this task. Therefore, the celebration of the worship of Mercy is one of the forms of the Divine Mercy devotion, alongside the image of Mercy, the Feast of Divine Mercy, the Chaplet and Hours of Mercy, because this practice has been endowed with the promises of Jesus that everyone can use.
